How to Simplify Your Life

QiLiving is a full-service personal and corporate concierge company specializing in green living. With the highest standards of service, we endeavor to influence consumer behavior by transforming the fulfillment of our clients' needs into a means of sustaining and rebuilding the environment. All of our services have been diligently selected to enhance the "Qi" (kee), or life energy, of our clients. Eastern philosophy dictates that the appropriate direction of "Qi" leads to immeasurable success in each aspect of one's life. In keeping with the true meaning of comte des cierges, QiLiving aspires to not only be the "keeper of the candles," but also the preserver of our planet Earth.

Seeking a Corporate Advantage?

QiLiving supports corporate leaders by providing services that promote business and environmental success. QiLiving understands the importance of the work-life balance and its influence on a company's performance. By incorporating our services into a sustainable strategy, companies can generate lasting value for their consumers and workforce, thereby creating a competitive advantage.
